THE COVALENCE CONSULTING WAY

*A decidedly unique approach for addressing today's most pressing
HCM & WFM challenges*

- We simplify the complex
Wage & hour regulations, absence & leave policies, and other regulatory pressures can introduce incredible complexity. We address these issues head-on so you don't have to.
- We embrace transparency
Ethics, honesty, and transparency are in our DNA. We're committed to open and honest communication, accurately scoping and tracking work, and never declaring a job complete until our client is happy.
- We handle the "tough stuff"
If you have large-scale or complex workforce issues, if you need strategic guidance and support, or if you have a highly integrated HR IT infrastructure, we've got you covered.
- We deliver unmatched expertise
Our founder created one of the leading enterprise workforce management platforms and our implementation consultants are second to none. We put this expertise to work for you on each and every project.

"The Covalence team was able to keep in mind the big picture of what we were trying to accomplish, while still being incredibly meticulous and detail-oriented with every specific requirement and request we had."
